Castle Coombe Auxiliary Of Mission Society

Hold Large Gathering

A gathering was held at the home of Mrs. Ferguson, two miles north of Estuary, on June 12, the occasion being the thirteenth birthday party of the Castle Coombe Auxiliary of Women's Missionary Society. Eight of the ten charter members were present. The fact that the society was organized with every woman in the district a member, revealed not only pioneer days in a fine devotion, for the fact was brought out that there was no preaching place within a radius of thirty miles at that time.

Mrs. Thos. Rowles presided and president, Mrs. W. Rowles, also second vice-president of the Swift Current Presbytery Society, gave an outline of the recent conference branch convention, held in Regina, dwelling particularly on the devotional exercises which had marked every session of that great gathering.

Mrs. A. Pollard, of Praelte, gave a report of the inaugural ceremony of the union society, speaking both of the Presbytery convention and of the addresses of Miss E. McGregor, Field secretary for Canada of the W.M.S.I. and of Miss Nellie Foreman, of the Regina Settlement House, at the Regina convention, stressing particularly the worship of the one God by so many various sects, the heritage of the United Church by the contributors of the uniting bodies, the greater vision and the greater prayer force under union, and the contribution which the new Canadians are making to Canada, together with the effort being made to enable them to become — not Methodists or Presbyterians or Catholics — but Christian citizens of our great Dominion.

Rev. Mr. Tatham, of the Anglican Church, Empress, spoke briefly in the hope of the uniting of all the Churches of Christendom. Mr. Chas. Lewis, of Victoria College, Toronto, newly appointed student missionary in the field led in prayer, as did the Rev. A. Pollard, of Praelte.

The proceeding had commenced with a picnic at noon hour, and the meeting which was called to order at 3.30, was held under the shade of cottonwood trees, whose trunks, not even the tallest man present could span with both arms — a most welcome scene to those whose eyes were accustomed to the prairie. About 64 were present.

About 64 were present.

Lloyd George held their picnic yesterday. A number of towns including baseball players, attended.

School Pupils Picnic

A very jolly time was had by the pupils of the Junior and Senior Intermediate rooms of the Kitchener School on Friday June 18, when about seventy-five children met at the creek for a picnic.

The afternoon was spent in racing, contests, swimming, games, etc., which were thoroughly enjoyed by all. These were followed by a delicious supper consisting of sandwiches, cake, candy, lemonade and ice cream, which was served to the kiddies who sat around the bonfires laughing, chatting, and making every manner of weird remarks. At everyone's bidding justice to the gaudy several short sketches were presented by the pupils of grades four and five, which brought forth many hearty laughs.

About seven o'clock thoughts were turned toward home, and everyone had a good night's sleep.

The teachers and pupils of the Junior and Senior Intermediate rooms wish to express their appreciation to Mr. W. R. Brodie, who so kindly donated three gallons of delicious ice cream and one hundred cents for the occasion, and also to Messrs. McCharles, Turner, Brodie, Blodgett and Morrison, who took the children back and forth in their cars. It is to the generosity of these men that much of the success of the afternoon is due.

The prize-winners in the different events were:
Girl's races: 8 to 10 yrs., B. Hall; 11 and 12 "R. Arthur; 13 to 15 "H. Arthur; Boys' races: 10 to 12 yrs., E. Cairns; 13 to 15 yrs., J. Cairns; Sack Race, H. Roddy; L. Cairns; Three-legged race, H. Roddy, L. Cairns; Wheelbarrow Race, F. Pawlak, and M. Hay; Pie-eating contest, J. Cairns, P. MacCharles; Soda biscuit contest, R. Barry.

Endless Picnic

A large number from town attended the picnic at Bindloss, on Wednesday last week. The day was fine and the attendance was extra big. The stampede sports and baseball evoked much interest. The day's activities were concluded by a dance.

Lloyd George held their picnic yesterday. A number of towns including baseball players, attended.

Joint Political Meeting

Mr. MacCrinnon, Conservative candidate, and Mr. J. Weir, Parkland, had arranged to address a meeting in Bindloss, Saturday, June 19. They invited opposition speakers. W. C. Smith, had accepted this invitation, and was accompanied by Mr. C. Axelson, Bindloss.

The meeting was held in the hall of the hotel, Mr. H. MacDonald occupied the chair. Mr. MacCrinnon, spoke for about twenty minutes, dealing with the main features of the Conservative platform, emphasizing the party's pledge of economy in government, reduction in taxation, and its plans for the solution of the dry area problem. Mr. Smith followed, his address lasting thirty minutes, and gave a very complete account of the U.P.A. activities during the past term of office, making numerous comparisons between the government's policies and those of the former Liberal administration. Mr. Smith, spoke pointedly regarding the new Liberal leader, Mr. Shaw, and briefly sketched his political career in a manner that entertained the audience.

C. Axelson, was the next speaker. His address lasted 30 minutes, and apparently was in the main a reply to Mr. Smith. He spoke of the falling popularity of farmers supporting either of the old parties, with their well worn old machines, the advantages of co-operation and necessity for organization of the farmers' own political power, as the only means of their attaining any political advantage or economic benefits.

James Weir was next speaker. It was at once apparent to the audience who had listened attentively to previous speakers, he had a gift of eloquence, unfortunately too rare these days. On account of time taken by speakers he had to forego part of what he would have made his address. He offered criticism of the U.P.A. government on various important matters, and although he could not but be aware that in the main his audience were mainly supporters of the government, his criticisms were made with a directness and point that appealed to his hearers, who did not hesitate to show their appreciation of an opposition speaker, Mr. Weir's candor. He was obviously just as much at ease in replying to questions as in delivery of his main address. His natural wit was a delight to the audience.

The meeting was a credit to all taking part, and it was regretted the Liberal candidate had not arranged to be present.

Summer Fever

I am tired of thought, and of labor,
Of the task that is set me to do;
I am tired of seeing my neighbor,
(He looks tired of seeing me too.)
I am weary of struggling and straining;
This unceasing work doesn't pay.
I find myself daily complaining,
To be careless, untrammelled,
And free
To enjoy a few weeks' relaxation
And that's what's the matter with me!

Attract The Tourists

It is an economic truth that the imports and exports of a country must balance. That is to say, if a country imports more than it exports it must pay the difference in gold, which means that it sends money out of the country, that is, exports it. This is the balance maintained. On the other hand, if a country exports more than it imports then it has to be paid, which means an import of gold. Thus the country whose exports in raw materials, but not of goods, manufactured goods and general merchandise exceed imports of a like character, and to whom the importing countries must therefore remit gold in order to balance accounts, can hardly help but prosper and grow wealthy.

There are, however, what are termed invisible imports. For example, Great Britain is obliged to import food and other necessities of life on a huge scale, and it is not infrequently supposed that British exports of coal and manufactures do not equal these imports in value. Thus the balance of tangible trade is against Great Britain. But this is more than offset by the fact that the mercantile marine of Great Britain is the greatest trade carrying agency in the world and all countries pay tribute to it. The earnings of the British shipping constitute a great but invisible import, and these imports, like exports, add to the national income and wealth.

There is another class of imports which operates in the same advantageous way, and one in regard to which Nature has equipped Canada to reap great benefits if the Canadian people make full use of their opportunities. We refer to tourist traffic. A tourist brings at least one thing with him—money. He spends it in traveling and hotel expenses, in means of recreation and pleasure, and in purchases in the country visited. Making Canada attractive from the standpoint of the tourist is, therefore, good national business. It will not only draw countless thousands of visitors from other countries, but it will encourage Canadians to spend their vacations in Canada, thus keeping their money at work and in Canada, and in making them better acquainted with the Dominion and its enormous possibilities.

As already stated, Nature has done its part in richly endowing Canada with some of the finest scenery in the world and by making the Dominion a veritable sportsman's paradise. The Canadian climate, both in summer and winter, makes a strong appeal. But these things are not enough in this age. Tourists not only demand these things, and a marked change from the environment in which they live most of the year, but they insist on all modern comforts and conveniences, and go where they can be obtained.

Canada must, therefore, be made a country noted for its good roads if it is to capture any large share of the automobile tourist traffic which has now reached such large proportions. Canada must cater to the needs and tastes of all tourists by chains of good hotels, by bungalow courts, attractive summer and winter resorts.

Tourists will go where the greatest beauty beckons, the best roads lead and reasonable comfort and necessary conveniences can be enjoyed. A motoring tourist along a good road arriving at a town or village which presents a well kept and clean appearance, streets well treeed, an attractive little park, and residential lots, both back and front, tidy and with trees, shrubbery, grassy spaces and flowers, and where the hotel, no matter how small, is spotlessly clean and good meals served, will almost certainly stay awhile. But if the town or village is the opposite of these things, it is even more of a certainty that the tourist will hurry right on.

It costs money to make our prairie cities, towns and villages pleasant and attractive. But it takes more of time and patience than it does real money to transform them as many have been and are being transformed into places of real beauty and restfulness. It is the development of the right type of community public spirit that really counts in the achievement of results.

The securing of a fair share of the growing tourist traffic of the continent is something that no Canadian city, town or village can afford to neglect. It is not business, and frequently leads to larger and unexpected business developments, because many a tourist while on pleasure bent is also keeping an eye open for investment and business opportunities.

And in making of the home town bright, clean and attractive is in itself paying dividends to all the townspeople in increased local pride and pleasure at home throughout the whole year.

Using Other Flags Alone Forbidden by Bermuda Law

Because so many houses in Bermuda were flying the United States flag alone, the Bermuda House of Assembly has passed an act forbidding the flying of any flag unless the British flag is also flown. Is Learning the Business

Heir to Woolworth Millinery Working in Long Island Store

Newspaper supplement editors will be glad to learn that Mr. Norman Woolworth, of the second generation, is five and ten cent store business, is hard at work in the P. W. Woolworth store in Flushing, Long Island. Mr. Woolworth, whose income is said to reach $25,000 a day, is serving out his time under one of those queer wills which make it incumbent upon the heir to learn the business from the bottom up. He wears overalls in the cellar, where he is officially known as a "head of stock."

When the six p.m. gong rings a large Lincoln draws up to the door of the five and ten, and the pumpkin develops its cylinders, with a livelier chauffeur in attendance. The heir to the Woolworth millions gives James the high-lights and is driven down the road, bit to one of the show places of Flushing, where he lives—The New Yorker.

Vodka Has Bad Effect

Is Blamed For Growth of Loafing in Soviet Factories

The re-industrialization of the Russian Government of vodka of pre-war strength of 40 degrees is blamed by many for the growing incidence of loafing and absenteeism from work in Soviet factories.

The whole press, led by Economic Life and The Moscow Worker, is doing an agitation-loafing campaign. An worker corresponds from many factories point out, the decline began last fall, which seems to connect it definitely with vodka.

One writer from the Moscow state says: "Consequently, the loss of strength from work increase 25 per cent after pay days, the reason being drunkenness," which seems to dispose of the vodka reason advanced in some quarters that the growth of Soviet industry has brought in a number of unskilled workers from the country, lacking labor discipline, and causing accidents through unfamiliarity with their machines.

Studying Industrial Conditions

Eight English Workmen Sent To U. S. By London Paper

A unique delegation arrived in New York recently aboard the Carmania. They were eight British workmen. One was a patternmaker, one a boiler-maker, one a blacksmith, one a tool-maker, one a miller, one an ironworker, one a fitter, one a "machine man." They came to the United States for four weeks on invitation of the London Daily Mail, one of Lord Rothermere's papers. They are eight actual workers, not labor leaders, sent to examine working conditions, wages and industrial methods in the United States. The newspaper is paying all their travelling expenses, paying their wives (who remain at home) the usual wages, giving the men one hundred dollars each for extra clothes and fifteen dollars a week spending money, and providing each with a five pound dollar bill and accident insurance policy while on the trip.

A Reciprocal Tariff

Canada Would Reduce Duty On Cattle If United States Takes First Step

Hon. W. R. Meagher, minister of agriculture, announced in the House of Commons that the Canadian Government was prepared to adopt a "bracket for a brick policy" with the United States in the reduction of duty on cattle. "Every step taken by the United States Government," he said, "in the way of a reduction in duty on cattle will be met by a corresponding reduction on the Canadian duty against American cattle." We have a brick for brick policy. That is to say every brick that America is ready to discard will be met with a corresponding brick from Canada. It is not a matter of bricks, but of a corresponding brick from the United States.

Mr. Meagher announced that the government this month had passed an order-in-council authorizing the minister of finance to take such action as may be necessary in the direction of reducing the Canadian tariff on cattle, in view of the fact that the United States was making similar reductions.

Madame Lenin Disillusioned

Tired of Soviets Ask Permission to Settle in England

Madame Lenin, widow of the great Bolshevik leader, has had enough of the land of Soviets and has applied for permission to settle in England, according to a dispatch to the London Times. The Russian authorities are doing their utmost to restrain her, who is known there as Comrade Krupskaya, from carrying out her intentions. Not, to be sure, that they are an enormously fond of her, but because they fear that she will devote her time in England to the writing of an expose of the Red movement that would be like a smashing thunderclap in the Bolshevik camp. It is plain, however, that Madame Lenin is disillusioned as much as Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman. Her desire to break away from Russia at this time would again show the frontal conflict between the dreams of the ideologist and the hard facts of reality. If Madame Lenin succeeds in getting out of Russia, which is after all no easy matter, as Trotsky discovered, she will be able to give a true picture of Russia as the nation of the future, and that the world had from such credulous individuals as constituted most of the current nations that went to Russia for investigation and who were shown only the polished surface and not the ugly inside of things.—New York Evening World.

Cannibalism Exists In French West Africa

Indulged In By Secret Society of Witch Doctors

Cannibalism exists and is practiced to a considerable extent in several villages in French West Africa, bordering the Liberian frontier. This cannibalism is indulged in by witch doctors, who are small but not unimportant members of the secret society. Recently two of them, one a woman, were arrested. The woman, in her confession revealed details of the manner in which two children had been murdered and eaten by the witch doctors. She explained the motives of their secret society and demanded that the victim should always be dead to death by seven of the witch doctors, who otherwise would have been killed. The motives of the society were most peculiar always to sacrifice members of their own families as they believed that the souls of strangers might be bewitched.

POLITICAL ADVERTISING

CONSERVATIVE PRINCIPLES

CONSERVATIVE LEADER

A. A. McGillivray Sets Forth in Plain Language What the Provincial Conservative Party Stands for in Coming General Election.

Co-Operative Marketing Extension is Advocated

Proportion of Monies Expended on Roads to Go Toward the Maintenance of Country Roads as Well as Main Highways—Encourage the Inflow of Capital and Immigration to Supplement Efforts of the Dominion Government.

SPEAKING at Rockyford on Thursday afternoon, June 18th, in support of Hugh Miller, Conservative candidate in the Glenora riding, A. A. McGillivray, leader of the provincial Conservative party, reiterated the items in the policy of the party that he has stated from different platforms in Alberta since being elected leader in August, 1925.

In his usual fighting style, Mr. McGillivray reviewed the record of the old Liberal administration and the record of the present government. Summing up his appeal to the electorate following the declaration of political principles, Mr. McGillivray said the Liberal party cannot go back into power, and its record cannot be hidden under the cloak of one new convert.

Give Them a Chance
The present government has failed to cope with public questions, the chief of which are redistribution, the northern railways, natural resources and the finance problem that it has had to face, then why not give the provincial Conservative party a chance to demonstrate what it can do? Mr. McGillivray left here at 8 p.m. for Oyen and other points in Acadia riding.

In reiterating points in the Conservative policy that have been announced by him from many platforms since he took the leadership of the party in August, 1925, Mr. McGillivray said, "I have not come in for the form of political advertisement."

"2. Reduction in the amount paid in seasonal indemnities of members by $400."

"3. A determined effort to make of the United Farmers of Alberta organization something more than a mere political machine and to advance its development along social and economic lines."

"4. The encouragement of co-operative marketing. Even as supporters of the Conservative party brought Rapiro to Alberta without thought of political advantage, so will the Conservative party support any movement for the benefit of the farmers, without seeking political glorification."

Money for Roads
"5. A fair proportion of the monies expended on roads being deflected from spectacular trunk roads to farmers' market roads."

"6. In so far as it lies within the legislative control of the province, keeping ahead of grain elevators with respect to the weighing and grading of grain."

To the Electors of the Constituency of Empress

Having been chosen by the U.F.A. as their candidate in the Provincial election, I ask your support, based on the record of the last five years on what has already been accomplished.

1. We have balanced the budget in 1925 and had a surplus of over $180,000.00 and estimated surplus for 1926. The bonded debt of the Province for which the U.F.A. Government is directly responsible is $5,304,064.41. We have added to the public debt a little over $1,000,000.00 per year. The Liberals, during the time they were in power, increased the public debt at the rate of $5,000,000.00 per year. It was only by

Canada railways, with a consequent saving of nearly one million dollars a year.

"18. The obtaining of our natural resources on fair and equitable terms, and the prevention of any strings attached thereto. (The provincial Conservative party has stood for this since 1903.)"

Balancing the Budget
"19. The yearly balancing of the budget. In September, 1925, while advocating the government was not saying that it could not be done without impairing essential services, the Conservative party, took the position, as it does now, that the budget could and should be balanced each year."

"20. A complete reversal of the former Liberal and the present government's attitude toward capital by encouraging in every possible way what has money to invest in expansion and utilization of our natural resources of all kinds."

"21. A provincial immigration and colonization policy to supplement the efforts of the Dominion government to get people and to retain them when we get them here, so that, with our money, we are going to distribute the land, and we may hope to cope with our debt and our ever-increasing burden of taxation."

"22. The provincial Conservative party has determined to bring about an inflow of capital and of people, because the future prosperity of our people is inseparably associated with them."

"23. One system of voting for both city and rural constituencies."

"24. An immediate decision as to the Spray Lakes water power project."

"25. Mass local autonomy in municipal affairs."

Here is What "The U. F. A."

Had to Say of Capt. Shaw

Liberal Leader as late as Sept. 15, 1925

The Official Organ for the Province

CAPT. SHAW

CAPT. J. T. SHAW

"The announcement that Capt. Shaw, who has represented West Calgary in the House of Commons as an independent member for the past four years, will not be a candidate in the forthcoming election will be received with the deepest regret, not only in all parts of Alberta; but among forward looking people throughout the Dominion.

"Capt. Shaw's withdrawal from public life would be a very serious loss to Canada. He made his mark in the last parliament, and he is recognised today as a parliamentarian of independent spirit and of outstanding ability and courage. He is one of a still small group of men in the federal sphere who have been paving the way for a real advance from the petty personal politics of today, to constructive and generally progressive statesmanship. His early return to public life will be hoped for by all who are familiar with his record of service in the parliament recently dissolved.

"Since the announcement of Mr. Shaw's intention not to be a candidate very great pressure has been brought to bear upon him in Calgary, in the hope that he will reconsider his position. We trust that he may yet decide to allow his name to go before the electors on October 29th."

MARK YOUR BALLOT THROUGH

Do not be satisfied by marking No. 1 for your own party, but mark your second choice of the other two candidates.

MARKING YOUR SECOND CHOICE

In no way interferes with your first choice. Your first choice is not eliminated unless your candidate is the low man. If you "plump" for one candidate, it means merely that you make no second choice of the other two, if your candidate should be eliminated.

VOTE 1, for The Liberal Candidate.

If you have determined to Vote No. 1 for another candidate, then vote No. 2 for the Liberal Candidate.

Advt. Inserted by Alberta Liberal Party
